- x) Polytunnels will not be permitted, however standard sized cloches are acceptable

6. Eviction Procedure:

The process for eviction is the responsibility of the Allotment Management Committee and takes the form of a number of notified inspections throughout the year by committee members. These inspections can result in an initial letter and a final letter being sent to tenants whom the committee regards as not complying with the conditions of letting. If, after the final letter, no improvement is deemed to have been made, then the committee will recommend to the Council that the Tenant be evicted. The plot will need to be vacated within one month of an eviction notice being issued.

7. Miscellaneous

- i. Any officer or member of the Council or Allotment Management Committee will be entitled, at any time, to enter and inspect the allotment.
- ii. The Town Clerk or an Assistant to the Town Clerk may sign any notice or agreement required to be given to the Tenant.
- iii. The Allotment Committee will be responsible for the day to day administration of the allotments. An Assistant to the Town Clerk will be responsible for the allocation of plots.
- iv. This agreement replaces all previous allotment agreements, if any exist, between the Council and the Tenant.
- v. All persons taking the tenancy of an allotment automatically become members of the Allotment Association and may attend the AGM and stand as a committee member.
- vi. The Constitution of the Allotment Management Committee is displayed in the Allotment Gardens Notice board.

 An allotment garden means an allotment not exceeding a quarter acre, which is wholly or mainly occupied and cultivated by the Tenant for the production of vegetable or fruit crops, other than apples, pears and plums, for the consumption by the Tenant or the Tenant's family, and flowers, provided these are not grown for commercial purposes.*

Notes regarding Joint Allotment Tenancy Agreement

- Where two parishioners wish to jointly work an allotment then, subject to below, both tenants shall sign a Joint Allotment Tenancy Agreement.
- One of the joint tenants shall be nominated as the 'Principal Tenant' and will be responsible for all payments and correspondence relating to the allotment.
- Where an existing single tenant wishes to have a joint tenancy, then they must make an application for a joint tenancy, nominating the Secondary Tenant at the start of the tenancy annual year (i.e. 1st January). The existing plot holder shall be the "Principal Tenant".
- Both tenants shall agree to comply with and observe the allotment rules, but in the final analysis only the Principal Tenant shall be held responsible for payments and ultimately for the condition and maintenance of the plot. (Both tenants must live in the parish.)
- In the event of the death of the Principal Tenant, the tenancy will automatically revert to a single tenancy in the name of the Secondary Tenant and vice versa.
- If either party wishes to give up their joint tenancy then they must write to the Council giving three months' notice. At their discretion, the Council may accept a shorter notice period. In the event of one tenant giving up their joint tenancy then the tenancy will automatically revert to a single tenancy in the name of the remaining tenant.
